I will circle back with you tomorrow about this since I have a busy schedule today. I have some time tomorrow to meet in person if that works better for you.

Thanks
Desean

Yes, any agreement we enter into with a recipient, when enforcing our nondiscrimination regs, is enforceable. And remember, we can also withhold funding from the recipient which might cause them to spark to action.

And, in contrast with a settlement reached by the parties, an informal resolution is “enforceable” by us?

Hey Richard,

The term “informal” is not describing the agreement, but the resolution of the matter.

Per our last conversation regarding moving forward with the call with recipients, I have updated the related planning documents. It is my understand that this call will be set for some time after the 8/11 briefing concerning ADC's recipient status arguments. In addition, I have reached out to Paul Achitoff (Earthjustice) to confirm whether there are any additional complainants who would be available for interviews. I have asked Paul to contact Lilian & Jeryl if those individuals may be available during my absence.
